Dinner Parties Season's Feature

WITH the many dinners and other entertainments being given daily in honor of the President and Mrs. Taft and other officials of the out-going administration, social Washington is fully awake, and the season of 1912-13, which had a fitful commencement, is now enjoying a social calendar which promises to eclipse all previous records for dinner-giving.

Miss Helen Taft is entertaining a most charming house party over the week-end, her guests being her cousin, Miss Catherine Anderson, Miss Wolfe, Miss Terry, Miss Lewis, Miss Thompson, Miss Arthur, Miss Lamb, Miss Keys, and Miss Hollister. In no former administration has so large a party of young people been entertained in the White House.

The presentation of a gold mesh bag studded with amethysts, to Miss Taft by her intimate friends here was a most gracious and charming act. She was greatly missed and her departure much regretted by the young belles and beaux in Washington, where she has always contributed to the happiness and pleasure of many.

The arrival of Lent has made no appreciable difference in the social world. Dinners and luncheons are the order of the day, and on Friday evening the Order of Washington will give an assembly dance at Rauscher's. It promises to be a most brilliant affair. Mr. William de Herburn Washington, of New York, will be the guest of honor, and Rear Admiral Stockton, U. S. N., commander of the Order of Washington, will head the receiving line.

The list of those receiving, which has not been completed, will also include Brig. Gen. Marcus J. Wright, vice commander of the order; Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Stockton, Mrs. James Marion Johnston, Mrs. George W. Brown, Miss Lucile Bacon, of Omaha; Miss Nannie Randolph Heth, and Mrs. Joseph Rucker Lamar. The presentations will be made by Dr. Joseph G. B. Bulloch, chancellor of the order.

The programme following the reception will be opened with the invocation by Rev. George Livingston Bayard, chaplain, U. S. N., chaplain general of the order. Mr. Washington will deliver the eulogy of Gen. Washington. After supper the dancing programme will begin.

The Military Attache of the German Embassy and Mme. von Herwarth will give a dance also at their residence in Rhode Island Avenue on Friday evening.

On the following Monday, February 24, a number of the bachelors of the Diplomatic Corps, will be hosts at a ball at Rauscher's, a most gracious way of returning the hospitality which they have received during the season. Among the diplomats who are organizing the ball are Baron Erich Zwiadnick von Sudenhorst, counselor and Charge d'Affaires for Austria; Commander Baron Maximilian Durnstyn, Austrian Naval Attache; Konstantin von Masierich, First Austrian Secretary; Stephen Hedry de Hedry et de Genere Aba, Second Austrian Secretary; Senor Don A. Alkara R. de Terreros, Second Mexican Secretary; Count de Sariz, of the French Embassy staff; Commander Boy-Ed, German Naval Attache; Baron von Lersner, German Attache; Mr. von Polow, German Attache, and Mr. de Bach, of the Russian Embassy staff. The diplomats will choose a hostess for the evening.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Williams Noyes are taking great interest in the wedding of their daughter, Miss Ruth Noyes, and Dr. Ralph Walker McDowell, U. S. N., whose marriage will be one of the principal social events of to-morrow afternoon. The ceremony will take place in St. Thomas' Church, and a small reception will follow immediately after at the home of the bride's parents in New Hampshire Avenue.

The bride's attendants will be her sister, Miss Elizabeth Noyes, and the bridegroom's sister, Miss Lillian McDowell, of Altoona, Pa., as maids of honor.

Ident. John M. McDowell, U. S. A., will be best man for his brother, and the ushers selected are as follows:

Commander E. R. Pollock, U. S. N.; Lieut. Commander C. E. Courtney, U. S. N.; Lieut. Commander W. F. Bricker, U. S. N.; Dr. Cary T. Grayson, U. S. N.; Capt. Louis McCarty Little, U. S. M. C., and Dr. George A. Riker, U. S. N.

The cold weather of last week gave Washingtonians their first opportunity of this year to enjoy their winter sports. Therefore it was a happy, joyous crowd who attended the meeting of the Washington Skating Club at the horse show grounds, which were flooded and frozen, and made perfect ice skating. Members of the Diplomatic Corps and officers of the army and navy took advantage of the opportunity to show their proficiency, and Representative and Mrs. Hobson were among the first to make their appearance on the ice.

The gathering of the clans of both suffrage and anti-suffrage enthusiasts promises to be one of the biggest events in the annals of Washington. Never before has the National Capital been a battleground for contending women, and the prospect promises to be lively in the extreme. Both causes have ardent supporters residing here who are prominent in Washington official and residential society.

Mrs. Taft and Miss Taft took their guests to the National Theater last night. The party comprised Miss Andrews, Miss Wolfe, Miss Terry, Miss Lewis, Miss Thompson, Miss Arthur, Miss Lamb, Miss Keys, and Miss Hollister.
